

Programme

Finnish-Russian workshop “Methodological Issues of Economic and Social History”

*Faculty of social sciences, meeting room
Unioninkatu 37*

Wednesday March 7, 2012

Chair: prof. Matti Peltonen

09.00-09.15 Opening: prof emerita Riitta Hjerppe

09.15-10.00 Prof. Leonid Borodkin: The Evolution of Labor Markets in Russia during the Pre-revolutionary Industrialization: Was the Rural/Urban Wage Gap Widening?

Commentator: docent Marjatta Rahikainen

10.00-10.45 Ph D student, M Soc Sci Laura Ekholm: Using Occupational Profiles to Study Social and Ethnic Boundaries.

Commentator: docent Irina Garskova

Coffee break

11.00-11.45 Ph.D Student, MA Daria Anisimova: Helsinki Stock Exchange before WWI: between European and St.-Petersburg's stock markets.

Commentator: prof. emerita Riitta Hjerppe

11.45-12.30 Postdoctoral Researcher, Ph.D. Sakari Saaritsa (with M Soc Sci Antti Kaihovaara): Investing in girls, bottom-up: Economic development, human capital and pro-girl educational spending by worker households in early 20th century Finland.

Commentator: prof. Leonid Borodkin.

Lunch

Chair: prof. Leonid Borodkin

13.30-14.15 Ph.D. Student, MA Natalia Razdina: The content analysis of the “For Industrialisation” newspaper editorials during the first five-year plans (1930s).

Commentator: University teacher, Doc Soc Sci Aappo Kähönen

14.15-15.00 Ph D student, MA Ilkka Leskelä: Networking, Capital Accumulation and Investment in the Periphery – Finnish Entrepreneurs in the Pre-Reformation Baltic Sea Region.

Commentator: Dr. Timur Valetov

Coffee break

15.15-16.00 Irina Garskova: Ethnic Discrimination or Job Segregation at the Labor Market in Baku Oil Industry? (Late 19th to early 20th Century). Commentator Ph.D. Sakari Saaritsa
16.00-16.45 University Lecturer, docent Hanna Kuusi: Soviet sculpture park in Lithuania - the difficult past present in multiple ways.
Commentator: prof. Leonid Borodkin

(Free Time in Helsinki)

Thursday March 8, 2012

Chair: prof. Emerita Riitta Hjerppe

09.15-10.00 Senior teacher, Dr. Timur Valetov: Workers' wages inequality: a micro-analysis for Russian textile industry, 1880-1910s.

Commentator: prof. Sakari Heikkinen

10.00-10.45 Ph. D. Student, M Soc Sci. Riitta Matilainen: Historical Gambling Studies - An Example of A New Multi-Disciplinary Approach Taking Shape.

Commentator: docent Irina Garskova

Coffee break

11.00-11.45 Docent, Dr. Andrei Volodin: Ivan Yanzhul: public figure and public economic policy (biographic approach).

Commentator: prof. emerita Riitta Hjerppe.

11.45-12.30 Prof. Matti Peltonen: Is Microhistory a Branch of Postmodernist Historiography?

Commentator: prof. Leonid Borodkin.

12.30 The Workshop Ends, but Co-operation Continues...

Lunch