

Academic Libraries and Researchers in the Development of the Digital Humanities - Case of Historians and Librarians

Finnish-Russian Seminar in the National Library of Finland

Tuesday 30th of June 2015 at 10 am

Auditorium, Yliopistonkatu 1, Helsinki

10-10.10 Opening words Irma Reijonen, Head of the Slavonic Library

10.10-10.30 Leonid Borodkin, Professor, "Digital Projects at the Department of Historical Information Science (Moscow University): Recent Experience"

10.30-10.50 Andrey Volodin, Docent "Digital NOT/OR/AND Analog: Spot the Difference?"

10.50-11.10 Timur Valetov, Senior teacher "Challenges of the Total Digitization, a User's View"

Coffee/tea break

11.20-11.40 Mikko Tolonen, Professor "Open Data Analysis Workflows in the Humanities. Library Catalogue Metadata in Research and Teaching"

11.40-12.00 Antti Kanner, "Exploratory Data Analysis in a Linguistic Study of Meaning Change"

12.00-12.20 Victoria Kurkina, "Digitization Project of Kindred Languages. Open access Fenno-Ugrica and Uralica Digital Collections"

12.20-12.40 Leena Jansson, Librarian "Finna Search Service for Archives, Museums and Libraries"

12.40-13.00 Irina Garskova, Docent "The Role of Academic Libraries in the Developing Digital Infrastructure of Humanities in Russia"

13.00 Discussion and Conclusions

13.30 Closing of the Seminar

