

30th Anniversary
of the Nikolai V. Sivachev Distinguished
Fulbright Chair in American History at the Moscow State University

Conference

“Russian-American Dialogue on the U.S. History”

21-22 June 2004

Moscow, MSU

Program

June 21

10.00

Conference opening (room 652).

10.05-10.30

Address of the U.S. Ambassador in Russia Hon. Alexander Vershbow.

Address of the Moscow State University Rector Prof. Victor A. Sadovnichii.

Address of the History Department Dean Prof. Serguei P. Karpov

10.30-10.50

Head of the Modern and Contemporary History Department Prof. Eugene F. Yaz'kov "Thirty Years of Exchanges between the Fulbright Program and the MSU History Department: Results and Prospects"

10.50-11.10

Director of the Fulbright Program in Russia Edward Roslov "History of the Fulbright Program in Russia"

11.10-13.00

Discussion on the reports of Eugene F. Yaz'kov and Edward Roslov.

13.00-14.30 Lunch Break

14.30-17.00

Panel "American Society in Modern Times"

Winton Solberg

"Religious and Scientific Dimensions of American Exceptionalism"

Larissa V. Baibakova

"The Origins of Industrial Society in the USA in comparative perspective"

E. B. Smith

"The Second Reconstruction: The American Struggle for Civil Rights since 1950"

Robert Macieski

Break (15 minutes)

Irina Yu. Khrouleva

"Glorious Revolutions in America: Colonial Political Development and Imperial Reorganization"

William Shade

"The New Political History: After Forty Years"

Maria O. Troyanovskaya

"The U.S. Recognition of Latin American Nations in the Context of the Monroe Doctrine"

Constantine V. Minyar-Beloruchev

"'Democratic Empire': The Separation of Powers Principle and the U.S. territorial expansion in the Middle of the XIX century"

June 22

10.00

Panel "U.S. Contemporary History" (room 652)

David Brody

"World War I and Workplace Law; or, Why We Have No Shop Committees in America"

Yuri N. Rogulev

«Industrial Democracy in Post-Industrial Age»

Robert Cherny

"New Perspectives on American History from the Comintern Archives: Harry Bridges and the Communist Party"

Irina K. Lapshina

Domestic Policies of the Richard Nixon Administration, 1969-1972"

Glenna Matthews

"A Revolutionary Breakthrough: Organizing Women Cannery Workers in the Santa Clara Valley in the 1930s"

Break (15 minutes)

Trani Eugene

"A Tale of Two Kennans: American Perception and Policy Towards Russia, 1891-1991"

Victor I. Batyuk

"Russian-American Relations Today"

Elena N. Glazounova

"John Carter Policies in the Third World"

Aleksey V. Pil'ko

"U.S. Impact on the NATO Policies During the Berlin Crisis, 1958-1961"

Igor V. Grigorash

"The Evolution of the U.S. Military Doctrine, 1939-1941"

14.00-15.30 Lunch Break

15.30-16.30

Opening of the VII Fulbright Summer School in the Humanities "Values, Canons, Prices: Text as Intercultural Currency" (room 652)

17.00-18.00

Conference Hall Public Fulbright Forum "The Culture of Dialogue in Modern Society: Views from Russia and America". Main Participants: TV journalist Vladimir V. Pozner and Prof. Steven J. Mailloux (University of California, Irvine)

18.30

Reception at the Conference Hall