European Historical Culture(s) Since the End of the Cold War

Авторская аннотация к курсу:

The series will focus on attempts to construct a common «European» historical culture in Western and Central Europe after the end of the Cold War in 1989 through searching for the way how to come to terms with traumatic European past. A special attention will be paid to the role of the memory of the two most tragic and violent European events of the 20th Century – the crimes of Hitler’s Germany and Stalin’s Soviet Union – in this process of «Europeanisation».
